Dassey and Eliezer

Your arms and hearts are always wide open for those in need, and “no” just isn’t in your vocabulary.

Whether the myriad of institutions or initiatives in which you are involved, or the insistence on always making your home available for a Shiur or community function, your sleeves are always rolled up and you never shy away from an opportunity to do the hard – and many times unglamorous – work.

It is a true privilege to share this award with you and to have the זכות to partner with you on so many community initiatives.

We thank you for your leadership and unwavering friendship, and for always being there for us, rain or shine.

What can we say? You leave no detail unattended to and never shy away from a task too large or small.

Your insistence on running from the limelight and refusing to take credit for your amazing successes are inspiring traits that we all envy.

Thank you for all that you do (that we know about and that we don't) and, more importantly, for your unconditional friendship.

Our Gratitude

Ner Yisroel, a shining light,
A beacon of Torah, burning so bright.
You opened your doors with a heart so wide,
Welcoming our Kehillah, a source of pride.
For Persian Neshamos seeking to grow,
You gave us a home where Torah would flow.
For giving our Mesorah a place to stand,
Strengthening roots with a guiding hand.
From Persian shores to a brighter day,
You led us forward, the Torah way.
To Rav Naftali Neuberger, a name so revered,
A leader whose vision deeply endeared.
Your warmth and wisdom, your steadfast care,
Guided our steps with love so rare.
Rebbeim devoted, with patience untold,
Teaching us values more precious than gold.
Through Torah's depths, you led the way,
Lighting our lives each blessed day.
Each Sugya explored, each Maamar shared,
Every Mitzvah taught, with thought and care.
You showed us the beauty of Torah life,
The path of Shalom, free from strife.
You built a bridge for our community's need,
Fostering unity in thought and deed.
From Persia's past to a future so bright,
You carried our heritage into the light.
Though written by ChatGPT, the gratitude is sincere,
A reflection of the Hakaras Hatov we hold so dear.
Ner Yisroel, may your light forever shine,
A bastion of Torah, eternal and divine.
To Rav Naftali and the Rebbeim's Mesirus Nefesh,
We offer our thanks, heartfelt and fresh.

And of course to our Rebbi,

No month would be complete without it starting off with Rebbi's words of Torah, Eitza and Chinuch. We know how limited Rebbi's time is which makes us all the more appreciative to be the beneficiaries of your unending care, devotion and Hadracha. True Strengtheners of Torah and Pillars of the Community!

We gather together today to give thanks and tribute to the remarkable Zweigs, who exemplify what it means to be “hostesses with the mostesses” (yes, that includes Lazer). Whether it’s hosting, helping, or leading by example, the Zweigs are always ready to jump in and serve the K’lal with their boundless energy and unwavering dedication.

As their dear friends and longtime fans, we’d like to humbly point out that while they’re incredible, it’s possible that we’ve played a small part in shaping their greatness. After all, behind every amazing couple is a group of friends cheering them on, nudging them forward, and occasionally throwing in some pranks just to keep them on their toes. (You’re welcome, Zweigs!)

It’s a labor of love, and it’s truly inspiring to see their continued dedication to Torah, community, and each other. Huge Mazal and Yasher Kochachem to the Zweigs and all the honorees tonight!

May the Aibishter bless them with the Koach to continue their incredible work, leading by example and building Greatness Beyond Boundaries.

With admiration and maybe just a little credit,

Totty and Mommy, עמו"ש

As parents/grandparents (and the best ones in the world, we might add), it is generally your זכות to be able to look at us and say "Wow, ברוך השם! How proud we are and how much נחת we are given from הקב"ה!"

However, there are (many) times where WE are able to step back and say "My goodness! Do we realize how truly amazing and inspiring our parents are?!" And this is certainly one of those times.

Throughout our lives and our journeys, you have both been there each and every step of the way. You have taught us the importance of לימוד התורה, תפילה, וגמילות חסדים, amongst the many other things that you build your lives around.

This is precisely what the הנהלה and רביים of נר ישראל impress upon their תלמידים: To be עוסק בתורה, while also, being בעל אחריות for the ציבור. It is only befitting that you're being recognized by the ישיבה, as you demonstrate how one can accomplish both at the same time, to the highest regard.

May you בע"ה see continued נחת as we continue to grow in your ways. And may all that you do for the כלל, whether in Chicago or elsewhere, be a זכות for the משפחה and all of ישראל!

The title Amud HaTorah perfectly encapsulates the essence of R' Tzvi Ray. Our Kehillah is blessed to witness firsthand his unwavering dedication to Torah in every aspect of his life. For 25 years, he has served as our beloved Baal Korei. His lomdeshe and articulate shiurim are greatly enjoyed by the many listeners.

R' Tzvi's contributions extend further; his heartfelt and inspiring tefillos as a Baal Tefillah on Yomim Noraim and Yomim Tovim uplift us. His generous support of our Kehillah, and the community at large, are a large factor in its constant growth.

Mrs. Ray on her own exemplifies boundless devotion to mitzvos and maasim tovim. The Ray's have been zoche to raise a beautiful mishpacha who follow in their footsteps. May they continue to see much nachas and go machoyil lchoyil.

Honoring Our Dear Rabbi

Akiva & Avigail Eisenstadt

Some couples light up a room; Akiva and Avigail light up the world.

From their early days in Baltimore as a Ner Yisrael Kollel couple, the Eisenstadts' extraordinary dedication to the Jewish people was already apparent. Now, years later, their selfless energy and unwavering commitment have transformed countless lives—and continue to inspire us all.

Akiva, our brother and brother-in-law, is the ultimate multi-tasking powerhouse: Rabbi, Rosh Kollel and Posek of the Manhattan Beach community, Kiruv Rebbe at The Shaar, tireless community Askan, and a relentless job-matchmaker for struggling families. And if there's a spare moment? It's spent ensuring that every member of K'lal Yisrael has what they need, physically and spiritually.

Avigail, the ultimate Ezer Kenegdo, matches his passion with her own impressive contributions. When she's not running her thriving interior design firm, she's piloting (pun intended) the lifesaving efforts of Hatzolah Air as its unstoppable volunteer COO.

Together, they are a dynamic force of Chessed and leadership. Whether transforming homes, communities, or the very skies above, the Eisenstadts elevate everything they touch.

As we celebrate your well-deserved honor from Yeshivas Ner Yisrael, know how deeply proud we are of you both. You're not just role models—you're legends in your own time.

You personify that which Ner Yisrael stands for;
אהבת ישראל and אחריות, חשיבות התורה smile and a pun. We are so proud of you and Yael and are glad that you've finally been recognized publicly for your efforts.

To my dear Chaverim from the Class of '99
(and especially to Yoni Halper for being the spark plug for this reunion), I am who I am today (at least the good parts) because of your goading, encouragement and endless positive peer pressure. Thank you!

To the Rebbeim and Hanhala of Mechinas and Yeshivas
Ner Yisrael, we are so thankful to have entrusted our son Eli's growth to your capable hands. We could not be more proud or more grateful for your efforts to shape him into the Ben Torah and Mensch he has become.

Rabbi Stewart made an effort to keep up the connection with me for all of his years. His family should realize the tremendous impact and influence he had on his students.

Your Zweig Sibling Admirers

We are thrilled that

Rabbi Akiva

is being honored by this critical Jewish institution, which has kept, and we are sure will continue to keep, the torch of Yiddishkeit alive.

Akiva has been a close family friend and our Rabbi for longer than we can remember. He is the one unique person capable of uniting the various factions in our Manhattan Beach community of Brooklyn, New York.

And those factions, were and still are diverse.

With his talent and hard work, he has molded them into a vibrant and growing Jewish community.

We cannot forget Avigail, who reminds us of a beautiful Energizer Bunny or Florence Nightingale. She cares like a mother hen for her five kids, and at the same time, will drop whatever she is doing to help a person in need. She has sacrificed her personal life for others. We can't count the number of times that she personally intervened to provide free air transport for those in urgent medical need.

With admiration, we gratefully join in honoring Rabbi Akiva and his wife.
